Innovative Readiness Training Program (IRT) Public Service Announcement

Notice to private individuals, universities, and non-governmental organizations. The Department of Health of Puerto Rico intends to solicit assistance at no cost from the Department of Defense's Innovative Readiness Training Program, as authorized by Section 2012 of Title 10, United States Code for the following community projects:

Project Title: Salud en Tu Pueblo

Project Description: Proposed assistance will involve deliberate medical personnel to support rural and mountainous regions, in order to reduce health risks, increase access to quality healthcare and enforce health practices in vulnerable communities.

Project Location: Rural areas, Puerto Rico

Project Timeframe: The proposed medical support will occur during summer seasons of year 2025 to 2026.

Private individuals, universities, and non-governmental organizations who have questions or who wish to voice opposition to military assistance for this project may contact Mrs. Miriam Ramos, Unit of Programmatic Management Director at 787-765-2929 or mirramos@salud.pr.gov from the publication of this announcement and during the following 15 calendar days. Persons not responding within the time frame noted will be considered to have waived their objections to military assistance for this project.
