

TIME TO CHANGE

The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) is improving the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments (CLIA) program by switching to electronic fee coupons and CLIA certificates. To take full advantage of these improvements, laboratories and providers that perform laboratory testing have until March 1, 2026, to switch to CMS email notifications and begin receiving electronic CLIA fee coupons and certificates. After this date, paper fee coupons and paper CLIA certificates will no longer be available.

By switching, your laboratory will get:

- ✓ Email notifications from CMS
- ✓ Electronic fee coupons
- ✓ Your CLIA certificate faster - no more waiting for it to come in the mail

This does not apply to CLIA-exempt states or state licensure*

To switch to electronic notifications, you must:

Provide written notification to your State Agency by email.

-OR-

Fill out the CMS-116 application form. To switch to electronic notifications, check the box, "Receive notifications including electronic certificates via email."

Reach out to Estephany Vargas (787)765-2929, ext 4742 or estephany.vargas@salud.pr.gov to switch to paperless. For more details, visit Clinical Laboratory Improvement \(CLIA\) Amendments.

Changes to CLIA Fees & Certificates

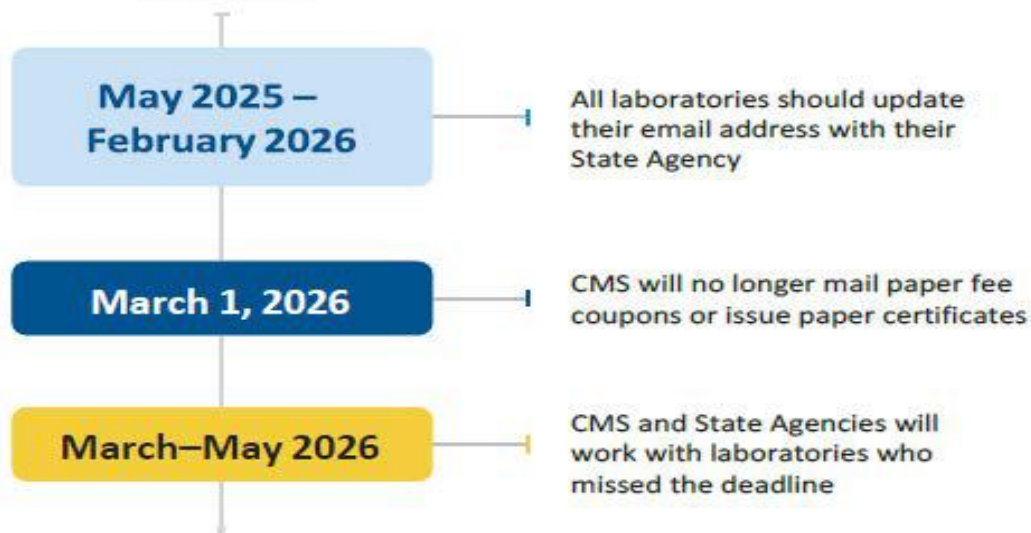

The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) is improving the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments (CLIA) program by switching to electronic fee coupons and CLIA certificates.

Laboratories have until March 1, 2026, to receive:

- Email notifications from CMS
- Electronic Fee Coupons
- Electronic CLIA certificates

Certificates will be sent to your laboratory's email address.

Timeline

Reach out to your State Agency for assistance.

Frequently Asked Questions

What's Changing with CLIA Fees & Certificates

The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) is improving the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments (CLIA) program by switching to electronic fee coupons and CLIA certificates. By March 1, 2026, laboratories must switch to CMS email notifications to start receiving electronic CLIA fee coupons and certificates. After this date, paper fee coupons and CLIA certificates will no longer be available. For more information, visit Clinical Laboratory Improvement \(CLIA\) Amendments.

What's are the Benefits to Going Paperless

When your laboratory switches to email notifications from CMS, you'll get:

Electronic Fee Coupons* - no longer paper coupons. In addition, you can pay your CLIA certification fees via Pay.gov, a secure online platform. Your payment gets processed overnight – a faster way to pay!

Electronic CLIA Certificates* - no need to wait for it to come in the mail. Certificates will be sent to your laboratory's email address.

What's Does My Laboratory Need to Do?

Make sure CMS has your laboratory's most up-to-date email address on file so you get important updates and information. CMS recommends you use a business email address or one that many staffers can access and use.

To switch to electronic notifications or update your email address, you must:
Provide written notification to your State Agency by email.

-OR-

Fill out the CMS-116 application form. To switch, check the box, "Receive notifications including electronic certificates via email."

How Does My Laboratory Use Pay.gov?

Pay.gov is a secure platform hosted by the Treasury Department. To pay fees online:

1. Go to <https://www.pay.gov>
2. Type "CLIA" in the search box in the upper-right corner.
3. Enter the CLIA ID number included in your invoice.

Pay.gov accepts bank account (ACH) or debit or credit cards for online payments.

When Does My Laboratory Need to Go Paperless?

Laboratories have until March 1, 2026 to switch to email notifications and begin receiving electronic fee coupons and CLIA certificates. After this date, CMS will no longer mail paper fee coupons or paper CLIA certificates.

Will My Laboratory Still Be Able to Use Paper Coupons?

Paper coupons and CLIA certificates will still be available before the March 1, 2026 deadline. After that, all fee coupons and CLIA certificates will be electronic.

What If My Laboratory Misses the Deadline for Switching to Email Notifications?

Your laboratory should contact your State Agency for assistance.